Diet Rules

1. Eat when all someone else's plate doesn't move.
2. If no one sees you eat it, it doesn't count.
3. If you break it into smaller pieces, it has less calories.
4. If you eat standing up, all the calories fall to your feet and get walked off.
5. If you fatten everyone up around you, you look thinner.
6. If you eat it due to stress, eg. chocolate, cheesecake, ice-cream, this is medicinal and doesn't count.
7. Movie related foods do not have additional calories because they are part of the entertainment package and not part of one's personal fuel eg.
popcorn and wings.
8. Wine is technically a fruit and therefore part of your 5-a-day
(in 5 glasses)
9. Food eaten at Christmas has 0 calories, courtesy of Santa CLA believed that is a plate of rocks in each hand.
